AN ODE

To

MARIAN CONLEY

To Marian Conley, instructor in English and English Literature, not only a teacher in the most meaningful sense of that word, but also a friend and adviser of all who need her help, we sing the ode of dedication of the Quiver of 1938.

HARDING HIGH

SET TO MUSIC

In this year's "Quiver" we have tried to portray the life of Harding High School through Music — not in an ordinary manner, through notes and scales, but through different types of Music and the organizations which represent them. We have compared the Faculty and Administration to a Symphony, Classes to an Opera, Activities to a Revue, Athletics to a Band, and Features to Swingtime.

We hope that this year's annual will make the school year of 1937 and 1938 live forever in your memories.

NOTES OF 1938

THE SYMPHONY

In which our Administration and Faculty are portrayed.

THE OPERA

THE REVUE

In which our Organizations and Activities are reviewed.

THE BAND

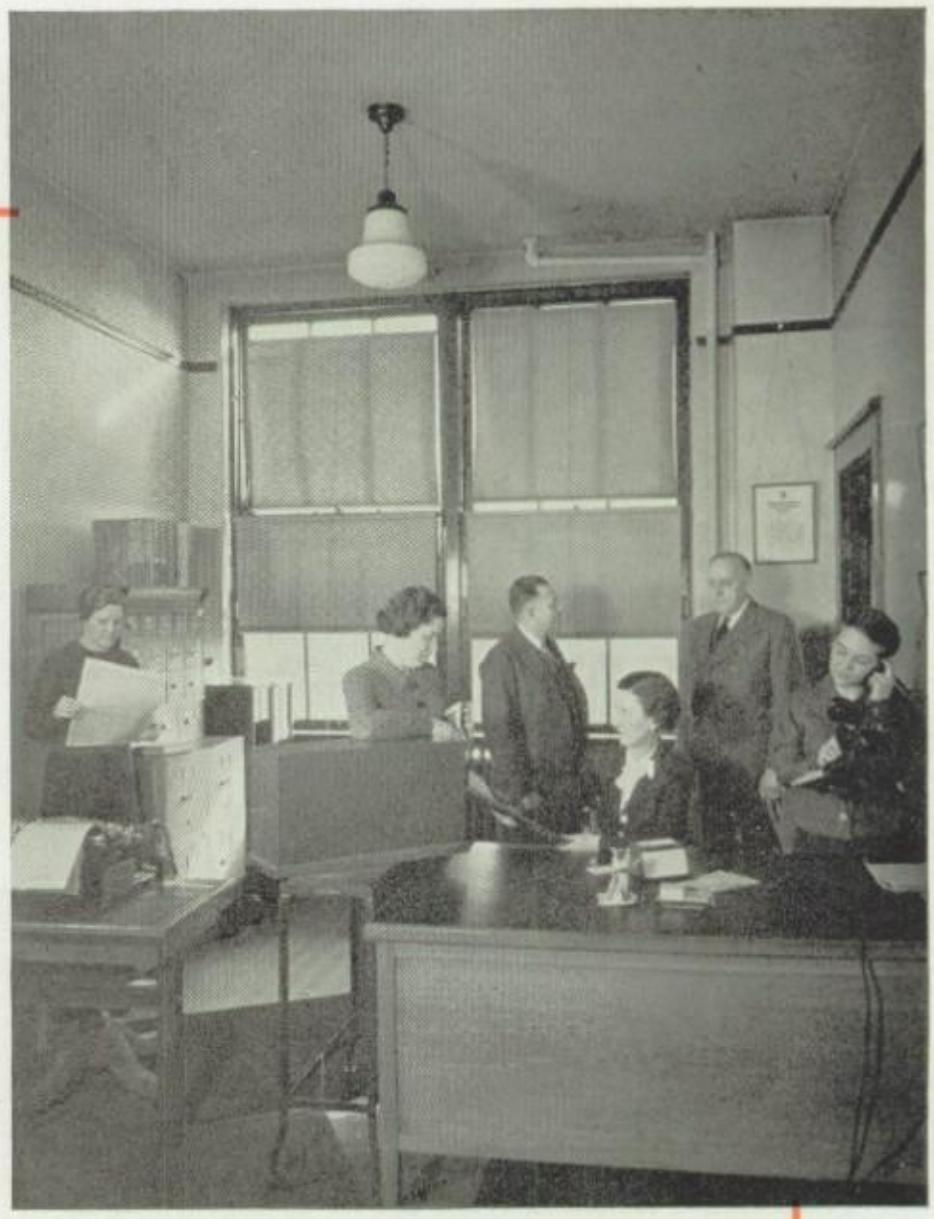
SWINGTIME

In which Personalities "shine."

OUR most serious music is played by a Symphony. Thus to the seriousness of school life — our lessons and teachers — we compare it.

Theoretically, an orchestra composed of only directors would not play very well, but from ours issues a blend and harmony that none can surpass.



Administration

SUPERINTENDENT

As superintendent of the Marion Public Schools, Mr. C. A. HUDSON has been most sincere in his efforts to improve our school system.

The management of schools is indeed a difficult task, and we commend Mr. Hudson on his fine achievements.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. K. H. MARSHALL, who has been principal of Harding High School for a number of years has done his work most efficiently. He may well be envied and commended for his cooperation with the teachers and student bodies.

Through his insight into the ideas of the younger generation, he has tried successfully to bring about a better understanding of the meaning of school life.

WITH a few stars, but most of us in minor roles, the Seniors have been singing a famous Opera. Many have sung it before; yet, although it was new to us, we have given a most successful performance.

The next two years will see the characters from the Operetta, the Juniors and Sophomores, setting out upon the stage to try their hand in the great Senior Opera.

FOUR YEARS HAVE PASSED

In the fall of 1935 two classes, one from Central and one from Vernon, entered Harding High School as Sophomores. As Freshmen the students from Central had chosen as their officers: Roy Stout, president; Dale Mackan, vice-president; George Griffith, secretary; and Margaret Hufford, treasurer. At Vernon the officers were: John Imbody, president; John Roberts, vice-president; Dale Hudson, secretary; and Jean Swain, treasurer.

John Imbody, representing Vernon, won the $5,000.00 scholarship given by the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild for the building of the Napoleonic coach.

Three Freshman plays, "Dad," "Thanks Awfully," and "The Violin Maker of Cremona" were presented at Central under the direction of Miss Zelma Howard and Mr. Raymond McNutt.

Both Central and Vernon held a "School Night," where an exhibit of work done during the year was presented.

To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Marion schools, Central held a "Homecoming."

The Torch Club, Girl Reserves, and Dramatic Clubs were active in both schools and members of the Vernon citizenship class published a handbook.

The class was active in debate and athletics and the year's activities closed with the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

During their Senior year the class chose for their officers: Roy Stout, president; Margaret Hufford, vice-president; Marguerite Queen, secretary; and Virginia Llewellyn, treasurer.

Four very active years of high school were completed with the Senior Sermon, the Senior Breakfast, Class Day, and on June 3, Commencement.

We Sang

SENIOR CLASS SONG
(Tune of Carmen Ohio)

To Harding High School let us raise
Our voices, now, in heartfelt praise,
For the years within thy walls
And memories each heart enthralls;
Joyously we laud thy name
And tell of Alma Mater's fame;
Ever we'll commemorate
Our class of 1938.

Though times will change as years roll by,
Our thoughts of thee will never die;
Treasures richer far than gold
We'll store in recollections hold;
We will strive to honor thee
In word and deed, on land and sea;
Cherished in our memory's store
We'll ever learn to love thee more.

— Lucille Stuckey.

Thanks

To Miss Foreman for her invaluable help, to Mr. Marshall and the office staff for their cooperation, to Mr. Gries and the advertising staff for making the book a financial success, to Dale Hughes whose efforts have given this book something that will long be remembered, to the annual staff and the journalism classes whose work has made this book possible, to those who have taken feature pictures, and to any students or members of the faculty who have aided in the production, we accord our most sincere thanks.

FIRST LADY

THE SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Class presented, "First Lady," a satirical comedy in three acts, written by Katherine Dayton and George Kaufman, on March 23 and 24, at the Ohio Theatre. The production was directed by Miss Lucile Foreman.

The play portrayed the rivalry between two prominent socialites of Washington, who were trying to gain the position of first lady of the land. The two rivals, Lucy Chase Wayne and Irene Hibbard, portrayed by Betty Beck and Jeanne Darnell, were constantly attempting to place their husbands, Ben Wiant and Richard Acker, in the White House.

In addition to the supporting cast, efficient back-stage helpers added to the success of the play. Miss Marian Conley was the faculty member in charge of make-up.

At the Ye Merrie Players banquet held in May, all members of the play were again brought together. Colored moving pictures of scenes throughout the play were shown at this time.

JUNIOR HISTORY

The Junior Class of Harding came from Vernon Heights and Central Junior High Schools, where they were active in many fields including Torch Clubs, Girl Reserves, and Dramatic Clubs.

Those at Central chose for their freshman officers: Jack Zeisler, president; Robert Pick, vice-president; James Todd, secretary; and Roland Beach, treasurer.

At Vernon the freshmen had as their school officers: Roy Abel, president; Ralph Howard, vice-president; Robert Guy, secretary; and Glenn Gifford, treasurer.

Two of their major achievements at Vernon were the yearbook, "The Veronian," and their class plays, "Orchids for Marie," "Honeymoon House," and "Six Cups of Chocolate." The freshman plays at Central were "The Princess," and "The Initiation."

Last year they were just another group of inconspicuous sophomores. Their officers were: Jack Zeisler, president; Weldon Metz, vice-president; Dorothy Bechtle, secretary; and Dana Kirts, treasurer.

This year they became more prominent as juniors. Among other accomplishments they presented a three-act comedy, "A Lucky Break," directed by Miss Dorothy Hanson, speech and English teacher.

JUNIOR PLAY SCENES

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The return of John Bruce, millionaire, to his old home-town induces a variety of friendships. Among these are the furtive plans of Mrs. Mullett for the musical career she has planned for Nora, her daughter; the only too obvious match-making intentions of Mrs. Barrett for her daughter Claudia; the speculations of old skin-flint Abner Ketcham as to the extent of Bruce's wealth; and the hopes of Claudia and Tommy for a helping hand (in the way of financial aid) in their love affair.

The rejuvenation of the all-purpose maid — tall, briary, plain Elmine Ludine, into a cigar-cigarette girl adds humor to the plot.

THE SOPHOMORES . . .

Both schools sponsored Girl Reserves, Torch Clubs, and Dramatic Clubs.

At Central Miss Zelma Howard directed the dramatic club and several plays were given during the year. Miss Howard also directed, "Alice's Blue Gown," "The Travelers," and "Three's a Crowd," the freshman plays.

EDISON . . .

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

The Junior class of '38 early in the fall chose as its officers Eugene Martin, president; Robert Wills, vice-president; Robert Dunlap, secretary, and Louis Keefer, treasurer. Their annual class production, a three-act comedy, "Don't Ever Grow Up," directed by Misses Mary Jo Stafford and Winifred Fary, included in its cast forty students with the rest of the class working on production.

The Sophomores were directed by Earl Johnson, president; Gerry Hall, vice-president; Jacqueline Drumm, secretary; and Robert Holiday, treasurer. Their three one-act plays were "Elmer," "Overtones," and "The Scoop," the latter written by Alvin C. Bippus, director, who was assisted by Miss Rosanna Crow in producing.

The school publication, the Spotlight, increased its circulation by means of the new mimeoscope purchased by the staff and the Commercial Club sponsored by Miss Josephine Haley. The co-editors, Avonell Bailey and Jean Harruss, were assisted by Paul Chapman, business manager, and Clarice Marshall, Paul Bishop, and George Glassmeyer, Art Editors.

Interesting programs of the Senior High organizations included that of the Library Council directed by Miss Ethel Garn, which made possible the purchase of recently published books and encyclopedias for the library. Miss Estelle Eichert Se-Co Club girls served luncheons to faculty three days a week.

Senior Girl Reserves with their president, Louise Isett, together with Junior Girl Reserves and their president, Donna Rech, furnished the Girl Reserve Room as a club room. The Ring Group entertained the Harding Ring Group with a supper-party in March. Miss Isabel Uncapher and the G. A. A. gave the second annual May Festival.

The Hi-Y sponsored by Mr. Glen Heistand and the K-Y group with Mr. Stuart Shipman of the faculty were active organizations. The Science Club, with its director, Mr. Mark H. Baker, had its usual interesting program. Many of the High School pupils were interested in the Junior Red Cross work with Miss Jeanette Powers leading. Sophomores and Juniors were members of the Harding Band, and both classes furnished football and basketball material for the Harding varsities, Coach Carl Brickley assisting.

Social activities besides those held by the various organizations, included the Annual Spring Dance of the Girl Reserves, May 13; Annual Sophomore Party for the Juniors; the Junior picnic following the Junior Class Day exercises for Edison Juniors, and the Junior-Senior Prom activities with Harding classes, climaxed the school calendar.

THE Revue is a medley, and so our activities pass in review. Our musical organizations, our social clubs, our honorary societies, our literary, dramatic, and journalistic organizations step into prominence as we re-examine our year's social life and recall the activities that have kept our school days from becoming monotonous.

Activities

HARDING HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, under the direction of Homer E. Huffman, experienced a very full year of activities. The members met twice a week for practice.

Several concerts and assembly programs were prepared. The orchestra entered the State District Contest at Granville for criticism.

Selections of various types were rendered by the Orchestra between the scenes of the senior play, "First Lady," and the Junior play, "Lucky Break."

EVERYBODY SING...

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, under the direction of Mr. L. G. Jones, have done outstanding work this year.

The purpose of these clubs is to improve sight reading, diction, tone quality, blend of voices, and to develop solo voices and group singing.

These clubs also create good will and common social interests among their number.

The members tried out in the fall and were selected and placed according to vocal range by Mr. Jones.

There are approximately 111 voices in the combined groups. Librarians were appointed for the clubs. Betty Craven, Elberta Titus, Mardie Ann Knapp and Betty Williams served the Girls' Glee Club. Officers were appointed in the Boys' Group: Gene Hoch, president; Dick Kemmerly, secretary.

This year the clubs have been engaged in various activities. Mr. Jones spent much time preparing these groups for the Eisteddfod this year at Kenton, Ohio. The clubs furnished several assembly programs for the school during the year, and they participated in the Music May Festival.

MIXED VOICES OF THE

HARDING MIXED CHORUS . . .

Directed by L. G. Jones, the Mixed Chorus is organized to give general experience in choral singing.

It is composed for the most part of sophomores who are taught the technique of the baton.

It is a pre-requisite in entering the school choir.

The one-hundred eleven members participated in a Spring concert and took part in the May Festival during National Music Week.

HARDING CHOIR . . .

The Harding Choir, under the direction of Mr. Jones, is composed of approximately seventy vcices. At the beginning of the school year, the following officers were elected: Jack Zeisler, president; John Williams, secretary; and June Imbody, assistant secretary.

The choir has participated in many activities during the year. In the fall a concert was given at Central Junior High School and a school assembly was presented. Christmas was celebrated with the cantata, "The Childe Jesus." The choir was increased to approximately one hundred and sixty voices for this performance. On March 6, it sang as the church choir for the Presbyterian Church. On March 25, the group traveled to Granville for criticism on their eisteddfod numbers.

An assembly, composed of the eisteddfod numbers, was given April 7, and the following day they were presented with competition at Kenton.

The choir sponsored several musical events during the year to buy new music and was rewarded by a party before school closed.

THE HI-Y . . .

"Creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the school and community, higher standards of Christian character," is the theme still being followed by the three chapters of the Hi-Y at Harding and Edison.

The Hi-Y Club this year was characterized by being composed of two separate groups — juniors and seniors. The seniors were ably led by: Roy Stout, president; Ed Hale, vice-president; Tom Clark, secretary; and Busby Sweney, treasurer.

During the year the club's varied program of activities included: its annual trip to the State Hi-Y conference, held for three days in Toledo on November 26, 27, and 28; and the Hi-Y Carnival, held March 21, at the Y. M. C. A., under the supervision of Bill Weston.

At the annual Christmas assembly, the Hi-Y presented the school with a picture entitled "Jesus in the Temple." The Hi-Y also collaborated with the Girl Reserves in having a Christmas party for the Children's Home.

The season's activities closed with a dinner given for the members and men of the faculty.

The season as a whole was a memorable one and will live forever in the minds of the seniors. We hope that in the coming years the club will continue to forge ahead in its spirt of good fellowshiip and Christian character development.

THE TRI-HI . . .

The Tri-Hi Chapter of the Girl Reserves is one of the largest organizations of Harding. Tri-Hi was organized in 1928 under the direction of Mrs. Rogers M. Kyes (Miss Helen Jacoby) with thirty charter members.

Miss Mabel Turney, Miss Margery Eymon, and Miss Ruth Starr are the sponsors of the club now.

The purpose of the club is to create a spirit of friendliness in the school, to show true sportsmanship at all times, to develop in each girl a deeper understanding of the earnestness of life, and to prepare her for an ideal womanhood.

The meetings are held every two weeks in West Hall. Membership requirements are that each girl must attend three consecutive meetings.

The outstanding social activities of the year were the Get-Acquainted Party, Recognition Services, Christmas Party, Mother-Daughter Tea, and Spring Formal Dance.

United with the Hi-Y, a Christmas party for a group from the Children's Home was given at the Y. M. C. A. and Pre-Easter Services at the Central Christian Church, and an Easter Sunrise Service were held.

HONOR SOCIETY

The members are as follows: Richard Acker, Mary Adams, Flora Brewer, Joseph Caprino, William Conley, George Diegle, Paul Fick, Richard Fogle, Mary Greenfield, George Griffith, John Grimes, Edward Hale, Howard Hibbett, Raymond Hudson, Margaret Hufford, Jeanne Imbody, John Imbody, Ruth Isaly, Kathleen Kerns, Miriam Knickle, Betty Landon, Virginia Llewellyn, Ruth Long, Mary Madaras, Evelyn Marks, Margaret Mautz, Tom Mullet, Pauline Parish, Thelma Porter, Marguerite Queen, Helen Steinman, Mary J. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY...

HONOR SOCIETY...

The most noble distinction Harding can give its students is membership in the National Honor Society, established in 1925.

The symbol of the organization is the keystone and flaming torch. Its purpose is to advance scholastic interest.

Those eligible for membership are the twenty-five per cent of the senior class, who rank highest in scholastic ability.

From these, the fifteen per cent of the class having greatest merit in leadership, character, and service are chosen by the faculty.

Miss Isabel Freer sponsors the society.

AIM HI...

After being a member of Girl Reserves for two years, any girl in a senior high school may join a group which works for rings, the highest Girl Reserve honor.

The ring consists of the letters G. R. within a triangle enclosed by the circle of friendship of Girl Reserves around the world.

The members receive a better understanding of the triangle, which represents the body, mind, and spirit, by passing three "guide posts." These were a perfect body, a keen mind, and a Christ-like spirit.

Meetings were held every two weeks at which the members reported on their progress. Ruth Isaly was student sponsor, Miriam Knickle, assistant sponsor. June Howe served as secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council, with Mr. Huffman as faculty adviser, is composed of one representative from each home room.

The group is confronted from time to time during the year with problems relating to the students. The experiment which it has attempted to study during the past year is that of the point system for extra-curricular activities. No definite solution has come from it, but the material gathered will be used next year.

The officers are: John McConnel, President; Bill Weston, Vice-President; Janet Quigley, Secretary; Betty Ehrick, Reporter.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

Contributing a distinctive service to the school, furthering literary interests, enoying the companionship of other pupils of similar tastes, caring for books and guarding against losses, and gaining experiences useful in adult life are the purposes of the Library Council.

The Council, organized in 1929, and sponsored by Miss Etta Jacoby, is composed of students who act as librarians, typists, and book menders.

Meetings of the Council are held every two weeks. Book Reviews, contests, and refreshments form an interesting social life for the club.

The officers are: Elizabeth Messenger, President; Lois Eikenbary, Vice-President; Betty Roberts, Secretary; Martha Robson, Treasurer; Mary Virginia Long, Reporter; and Helen Jones, Historian.

INTER NOS . . .

Inter Nos is a Latin club, sponsored by Miss Mabel Turney, the purpose of which is to give the better students an apportunity for studies of Roman life, for which there is no time in the regular class period. The members prepare talks, and everyone participates in general discussions. Every third or fourth year Latin student who receives an "A" or "B" for the six weeks period may belong. The meetings are held at different students' homes or at school.

During this last year, the club compared ancient Roman and Greek life with that of modern times. Roman and modern occupations and recreations were discussed.

The officers for the past year were Mary Adams, president; Miriam Knickle, vice-president; Lucille Stuckey, secretary-treasurer; Ruth Long, reporter; Donna Ruth Sinning, song leader.

LE PETIT SOLON . . .

Le Petit Solon is an honorary French society for second year French students receiving a grade of "A" or "B" for a six weeks period.

The purpose of this organization is to study supplementary subjects about French people and their customs for which there is not sufficient time to discuss in the regular class periods.

The officers are: president, Marguerite Queen; vice-president, Margaret Anne Mautz; secretary, Flora Brewer; treasurer, Harold Bonecutter; and reporter, Pauline Parish.

All business and conversation of the meetings are carried on in French. A meeting is held once every six weeks at the home of a member.

A program is presented at each meeting. Some of the features this year were a play, "La Famille deRuggles," accounts of French correspondents by several of the members, and a musical program on French composers.

The club is sponsored by Miss Isabelle Freer and Miss Ruth Starr.

PROP'S AND Q'S...

The Props and Q's Club with Miss Dorothy Hanson as faculty adviser, aims to give each member the opportunity to participate in the kind of dramatic activities he desires.

The club this year was divided into three groups: the Senior, Junior, and the Sophomore divisions. The purpose of this separation was to give each individual more activity in the club. Two new sponsors have been added: Miss Lucile Foreman for the Senior division, and Miss Isabel Stump for the Sophomore division. Miss Ruth Moore was responsible for starting the Sophomore division, but her resignation necessitated a different sponsor.

The officers for this year are: Richard Acker, president; Betty Roberts, vice-president; Donna Ruth Sinning, secretary; Joe Todd, treasurer; Virginia Long, historian; and Harold Bonecutter, business manager.

The separate divisions and the entire group alternate meetings every two weeks. Plays and Pantomimes are given, and in one meeting, marionettes and a Punch and Judy show were featured. At another meeting, Mr. Bippus, former dramatic coach at Edison Junior High School, talked on "A New Deal for Dramatics."

The club succeeded in getting a curtain for West Hall to use for their plays.

YE MERRIE PLAYERS . . .

Lights! Action! Curtain! Thus was the beginning of Ye Merrie Players in 1921. "Clarence" and "His Majesty Bunker Bean" were the junior and senior plays of that year. Miss Marian Conley, a member of the play cast of "His Majesty Bunker Bean", still continues active in the work of producing the plays. The earlier plays were given in the middle of the year.

As the play cast grew larger each year, the Ye Merrie Players membership included only the senior cast. The productions in later years have been in the spring.

Miss Foreman, the cast, the many backstage workers, and the teachers who gave their assistance put many weeks of hard work into the play.

After the play, the group looked forward to the annual Ye Merrie Players banquet held in May of this year. The troop of workers with the many teachers who helped, mingled for an evening of merriment. Short skits from the play were given, a colored movie of the play taken by Joe Koller was shown, and the toasts were enjoyed by all.

The members are: Mary Jane Stouffer, George Beam, Margaret Anne Mautz, Betty Beck, Ben Wiant, Pauline Parish, Jean Willoughby, Betty Jean Landon, Mary Adams, Jean Swain, Ida Brunson, Howard Hibbett, Ed Hale, Joe Caprino, Francis Ruzzo, Betty Roberts, Raymond Hudson, Mardie Knapp, Mary Greenfield, Don Porter, June Swope, Jack Stephenson, Ruth Isaly, Virginia Long, Warren Callahan, John Livensparger, Jeanne Darnell, Robert Hanes, Richard Acker, David Sleeth, George Diegle, Robert Weber, Richard Fogle, Erwin Briethaupt, Otto Artopoeus, Warren Cyders, Eleanor Abelson, Helen McAdams, Margaret Hufford, Melvin Cratty, Gene Leffler, Helen Steinman, June Thomas, Frank Mann, Robert Campbell, James Edington, Thelma Porter, Mary Madaras, Marguerite Queen, Helen Jones, Virginia Llewellyn, Grace Turner, Ruth Crotinger, Margaret Fields, Miriam Knickle, Bonnie Gast, Tom Clark, William Conley, John Dean, Clifford Glassmeyer, Paul Fick, Paul Bishop, Francis Phillips, Robert Lieb, Milford Corbin, Betty Ganoe, Virginia Thaxton, Helen Fetter, Ruth Long, Mary Scott, Jeanne Postle, Miriam Pauling, Mary Margaret Jones, Roy Stout, Harold Bonecutter, Jimmy Sloan, Joe Todd, Wayne Shaw, Lucille Stuckey, Irene Chambers, Julia Ann Walsh, Charlene Walker, Vesta Hite, Flora Brewer, Betty Cahill, Lois Eikenbary, Doris Marble, Loraine Drake, Kathleen Kerns, Natilie Smith, Betty Brady, Evelyn Marks, Jeanne Imbody, Jean Feaver, Virginia Harris, Mary Maag, Helen Rieger, Betty Williams, Thelma Wintringham, Jean Thompson, Maxine Frost, Dorothy Gorenflo, Marjorie Green, Helen Uncapher.

TIRONIAN CLUB . . .

All seniors receiving a grade of "A" or "B" in shorthand for the six weeks period are eligible for membership in the Tironian Club. The club was founded in 1924 and is now sponsored by Mr. Russell Dunlap.

Writings of prominent businessmen, plays, and musical numbers are features of the meetings. The club meets once every six weeks at the homes of the members.

The name was selected from Tyro, who was a Greek slave of Cicero's and later became his secretary.

Officers who presided during the year were: Mary Madaras, president; Helen Uncapher, vice president; Charlene Walker, secretary; Jeanne Darnell, treasurer, and Dona Schneider, reporter.

Tryouts were held and the remaining three members were chosen, bringing the membership up to eight.

Affirmative teams consisted of Lucille Stuckey and Melvin Cratty, and Owen Meddles and John Grimes.

Negative teams were composed of Margaret Hufford and Naylor Foote, and George Diegle and Josephine Frank.

Josephine Frank, Owen Meddles, Margaret Hufford, John Grimes, and George Diegle have each debated for two years.

Seven of the debaters will graduate, leaving only Owen Meddles as a nucleus around which Mr. Bain must build his new team.

The question was: "Resolved, that the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation."

This year a large schedule was filled, Harding debated in tournaments in Columbus, Wooster and Marysville, competing against teams from as far north as Cleveland, and as far south as Wyoming.

The independent schedule follows:

January 5, Ashley, here, two teams; January 7, Ashley, here, two teams; January 13, Findlay, there, two teams; January 14, Kenton, here, two teams; January 24, Kenton, there, two teams.

February 15, Findlay, here, two teams; February 17, Marysville, here, two teams; February 25, Marysville, there, two teams.

March 31, Harding, Kiwanis.

PRESS CLUB . . .

Press Club consists of all students who have taken journalism or have served on the Quiver Staff during their junior or senior year.

The purpose of this organization is to bring the students closer to the newspaper and magazine world and to help them appreciate the finer arts of life.

The student first develops his originality by means of various individual projects, feature story writing, and notebook work. He then applies his knowledge to the detailed study of the fundamentals of newspaper writing, including the writing of sport stories, news stories, editorials, and society columns. With acquired skill, the classes put out the Harding Herald weekly, under the guidance of Miss Lucille Foreman, faculty adviser; Margaret Hufford and Pauline Parish are co-editors. The final project of the year was the editing of the Quiver which was under the direction of Miss Foreman, faculty adviser, and Marguerite Queen, student editor.

THE HERALD STAFF...

The Herald Staff, students and faculty behind the scenes who are responsible for the weekly publication of the high school paper, have worked with the purpose of making this year's Herald better than ever before. They are:

Co-Editors.....Margaret Hufford, Pauline Parish
Business Manager.....Tom Mullett
Advertising Manager.....Gene Leffler
Circulation Manager.....Charles O'Dell
Exchange Staff.....June Swope, Mary Kaye Greenfield

Their duties are many; the editors must gather and assemble the material for makeup, the business manager collects subscription fees, the advertising manager collects for ads and sees that they are assembled for insertion by the editor, the circulation manager sees that the subscriber gets his paper, and the exchange staff trades papers with other schools for comparison and new ideas.

Assignments are made to the two classes in journalism, which alternate with their respective editors in the weekly publication. This year approximately 500 students subscribed to the paper. Faculty advisers are: Lucile Foreman, E. H. Shade and J. L. Gries.

Row 1—Charles O'Dell, Tom Mullett, Miss Foreman, Pauline Parish, Margaret Hufford.

Row 2—John Imbody, Jean Swain, Miss Foreman, Kathleen Kerns, Lucille Stuckey.

THE QUIVER STAFF...

Each junior in the journalism classes who is interested in Quiver work, is required to write a composition giving his idea of a suitable theme for the annual.

This year's staff consisted of:

Editor-in-Chief.....Marguerite Queen
Assistant Editor.....Virginia Llewellyn
Art Editor.....John Imbody
Sport Editor.....George Griffiths
Feature Editor.....Lucille Stuckey
Business Manager.....Tom Mullett
Advertising Manager.....Eugene Leffler
Faculty Advisers.....Lucile Foreman, E. H. Shade, J. I. Gries

The staff was assisted by the journalism classes, who gathered and wrote up material.

VOGUETTES

The "Voguettes," a newly organized club, is made up of girls taking Sewing and Related Arts, who received a grade of "A" or "B" for a six weeks period.

This club brings the girls of the two classes together to hear talks on subjects of value to both.

Meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday of every month at the homes of the members.

Style shows, an added feature, give the girls a chance to show the costumes they have made.

Miss Martha Tschanen, the Home Economics teacher, is the adviser.

PRINTING DEPARTMENT

The printing course, under the supervision of R. A. Todd, is one of the hardest courses at Harding to enter. Yet, it is one of the most interesting.

Mr. Todd aims to make his students appreciate good printing.

The department also helps the school activities and organizations in many ways by making programs and tickets for Senior and Junior plays, name cards, basketball and football schedules, and eisteddfod tickets.

VOGUETTES

Row 1—Lois Eikenbarry, Betty Roberts, Ruth Long, June Freeman, Miss Tschanen, Betty Ganoe, Mary Alice Griffiths, Betty Brady, Helen Reiger.

Row 2—Irene Chambers, Helen Fetter, Mary Margaret Jones, Idella Harruff, Eileen Pierce, Helen Daniels, Dorothy Gorenflo, Mary Laird.

PRINTING

AS we come to the Band, our music becomes gayer, and our pulses quicken as we hear the strains of "Hail, Hail to Harding High", mingled with the cheers of the enthusiastic crowd.

Introduced by the Band, our Football and Basketball seasons, Lettermen, and Girl's Sports of 1937 and 1938 step to the front to hold a place in our memory.

THE SEASON . . .

VARSITY

The Presidents opened their 1937 season with a tie game against Mt. Gilead. The heavier Harding team threatened Mt. Gilead's goal several times but were repulsed by the fighting Mount's.

After defeating Delaware 18-6, and swamping Upper Sandusky 20-0, the Presidents defeated Lima South 12-7 in which was called "the most spectacular scholastic encounter ever seen in Marion." Harding's first score came after a sixty yard drive to Lima's goal. Clayton Harper plunged over center for the touchdown. In the second half, a long pass from Castner to Williams, who made a brilliant catch as he fell in the end zone, put Harding two touchdowns ahead. Lima's only score came when Hudson, of Lima, returned the kick-off after the Presidents' second goal, seventy yards for a touchdown.

In the next game, a fighting Harding team was turned back by Findlay, 7-6. After a hard struggle for three quarters, Findlay scored late in the game. With little more than three minutes remaining, the Presidents drove sixty yards for a touchdown. A fake kick play was stopped by Findlay, and Harding tasted their first defeat.

Still smarting at their defeat by Findlay, the Presidents entered into their N. C. O. season against Ashland. In a sea of mud at Ashland College Stadium, Ashland tied Harding, 6-6.

A brilliant aerial attack brought Harding home in front of Shelby, 13-12. A thirty yard pass, Castner to Kemmerly, followed by a lateral to Riley, who scampered thirty more for the score, featured the game. Kemmerly's extra point conversion was the margin of victory.

Harding suffered a heartbreaking setback at Galion. After outgaining Galion on land and in the air, Harding was stopped one inch short of Galion's goal. The final score was 7-0.

The next week, a highly touted Mt. Vernon eleven came to Marion. Their wide-open style of play had won them dazzling victories. At Harding Stadium, they were outrun, outpassed, and outplayed by a Harding team which spared no effort. The final score, 20-0.

The season closed in a whirl of snow at the stadium. With the score 6-0 in favor of Bucyrus, Howard Diehl blocked a Redskin punt and carried the ball for a touchdown. With three minutes to play, Harding scored a safety to defeat Bucyrus, 8-6.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity, coached by George Niemi, will be a welcome addition to the varsity ranks of '38. During the past season, they compiled the enviable record of one loss against eight victories. Defeating many of their opponents by large scores, they showed skill rarely possessed by younger teams. Their only defeat came at the hands of Richwood, 0-2. They outplayed and outscored all their other opponents.

In the opinion of Coach Niemi, the team played its best game at Tiffin, where they conquered a larger Tiffin Columbian team, 8-0.

THE COACHES . . .

Coach Carl F. Cramer, who came from Ohio State to become head coach in football, spent his third year with us drilling his boys in daily practice on our practice field for their weekly gruelling encounter with their opponents under the lights of the stadium.

The season as a whole was quite successful with 6 wins and 2 losses, and proved to us all that Coach Cramer is capable of producing a winning ball club.

Coach George Niemi, who came to Harding as Junior Varsity coach in football this year from Miami University, brought forth the best in his team's material and made good at sinking all his foes but Richwood, the only team to score against the J. V.'s.

During the entire successful season, Harding ran up a total of 108 points to the opponents' 2, which is in itself a complete resume of the team's splendid record on the gridiron for '37.

For the first time in the history of Harding, track was made a major sport and was planned and supervised under Coach Niemi's guidance.

The season in its entirety was quite successful and much can be expected from it in the future.

VARSITY LETTERMEN . . .

Jack Stephenson—"Stevie" was selected on the mythical All-N. C. O. team. Playing tackle, he was a large barrier to the opposition. He was co-captain of the team and a sixty-minute player.

Paul Fick—A fine pivot man and a great line backer was Paul. He was a second year man and co-captain of the squad. His coolness under fire made him a valuable link in the line.

Robert Castner—An accurate passer and long punter, "Brassy" set up many touchdowns. A three-year veteran, he was selected on the All-N. C. O. team.

John Williams—"Rabbit" was the speedster of the Harding team. Lightning in a broken field, he dazzled opponents with his shifty running. He was also adept at snagging passes and was a long punter.

William Decker—"Big Bill" was a large tackle in size and ability. His towering height made him invaluable.

Charles Baker—A small man full of scrap, "Chuck" made a fine guard. A sure blocker and tackler, he strengthened Harding's line.

Joe Caprino—After an injury marred his first year, Joe returned to quarterback the Presidents into the thick of the N. C. O. race. Small, fast, and brainy describes Joe.

Glenn Wintermute—"Pud" was a slashing guard. He could often be found in the midst of the opponents' backfield. His second year was marred only by a troublesome knee injury.

Clayton Harper—"Bud" was a driver. His drives into the line were vicious. He played three years on Harding's varsity and played three different positions—a handy man to have around.

Richard Miller—Dick was a fine passer and shifty runner. He showed his ability often during Harding's season and earned his "H" in great style.

Paul Riley—Adept at snagging passes, Paul with a worthy addition to Harding's backfield. His second varsity season was a great success.

Raymond Hudson—Ray was a fine end, offensively and defensively. A great pass receiver, he set up many scores. His vicious tackling was the downfall of many enemy scoring attempts.

Howard Diehl—"Speed" was a line crashing tailback. His high knee-action carried him for many long gains. His height made him a valuable pass receiver and his defense was above par.

Richard Kemmerly—Determination, spirit, and ability—the answer to a coach's prayer. Dick was forced out by injury late in the season, but will be the nucleus for the 1938 team.

Jack Zeisler—Jack was a pile-driving fullback and able field general. He was an able line backer on defense. He shared the guiding of the team and did his part well.

John Gracely—A low-charging guard, adept at submarining, John spilled many a ball carrier enroute through the center of Harding's line. A junior, he is expected to be a strong point in 1938.

Carlton Taylor—"Tate" was a dependable tackle who could be trusted to do his best whenever called upon. He put in long hours of service for his varsity award.

Eugene Hoch—Injuries dogged "Stub" through his football career. On the sidelines most of his first season, he showed much ability in the last. A slashing guard, he was always in the thick of play.

CHEERLEADERS . .

Harding's teams were inspired and cheered on by the student body, led by Jeanne Darnell, Alyce Lattimore, Elberta Titus, Mary Fields, Willis Harps, Homer Partlow, Tom Mullet, and George Griffiths.

THE CAGE SEASON . . .

VARSITY

Harding's 1938 basketball squad got in full swing early in the season and "brought home the bacon" again this year by sharing the N. C. O. crown with Mt. Vernon. The season as a whole was a huge success and one which will not be forgotten by close followers of the team.

Several outstanding games were played during the season which brought forth the best in every player. There were many close ones, as in every season, and the fellows came through on the long end of the score in 15 out of 18 contests.

In the annual district tournaments at Delaware, Harding's cagers troweled to the finals, where they were turned back by a one-point margin by Newark, who later became state champs, and in doing so, added another cup to our present supply.

The Senior managers, Ed Hale and James Gast, were ably assisted throughout the year by Nick Jevas and Carl Meddles, Juniors; Loren Tibbals and Dick Bartlett, Sophomores.

A benefit game between Ohio Northern and Harding was undoubtedly the strongest basketball game played in the state, as it was the only game so scheduled. Special permission had to be granted before the game could be played.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity quintet was ably coached during the season by Bill Williams, under whose guiding hand they came through with 12 consecutive wins, dropping the 13th to Shelby by a one-point margin.

Due to their splendid record, top honors in the N. C. O. were carried off by the team for the second successive year.

The job of filling the '38 varsity team's shoes will rest heavily on their shoulders next year, and in view of the season just completed, they should do it very well. More power to them!

The Coaches...

Coach Dewey N. Bohyer, completing his eighth year of coaching basketball at Harding High, brought us through another triumphant season in varsity basketball with his team of stalwarts having hung up a record of 15 wins and 3 defeats for the entire season. Their fine record added another co-championship to Harding in the N. C. O. and another trophy to our trophy case. In the district tournaments at Delaware, he saw his team through the semi-finals and into the finals, where they were eliminated by the margin of one point (44-45) by Newark.

To him goes the credit of our successful season, and so we say, "Good luck to you, coach, in the coming seasons."

Coach W. O. Williams had quite a varied schedule of coaching tasks and came through admirably in each.

His Junior varsity basketball squad brought glory to Harding High, and for the second year under "Bill's" guiding hand, carried off top honors in the N. C. O.

Lettermen of '38...

We present the basketball lettermen of 1938 and give you a thumbnail description of each.

Bill Decker—Dependable, dynamic, dimpled Don Juan.

LeRoy Everly—Earnest, exceptional exponent of basketball.

Jack Fetter—Fast, foxy, feinting, formidable, forward.

Raymond Hudson — High, handsome, hindrance to hopeful opponents.

John Rea—Rambling, reciprocating, recouping guard.

John Williams—Weaving, winsome, whirlwing, worthy.

Glenn Wintermute—Warring, wise, wonder-worker.

Robert Wooley—Wary, wily, watchful wizard.

James Gast, Edward Hale—Merry, model managers.

GIRL'S SPORTS . . .

The girls' sports are carried out through the Girls' Athletic Association and the Kinesian Club sponsored by Miss Rachel McAfee.

The G. A. A. was organized in 1932. Its purpose is to play the game fair and to cultivate a healthy mind and body by proper living and beneficial exercise. All girls in the gym classes who live up to a health code are eligible for membership.

The activities of the year opened with a picnic at McKinley Park, at which games were played and the senior members were entertained by pantomimes given by the juniors. Later in the year a dance was given in the Harding gymnasium. A volley ball tournament was held among teams selected by different members of the club. The winners of this tournament received a letter. A ping pong tournament was also held. The social affairs of this organization ended with the annual spring dance held in collaboration with the Hi-Y at Edison Junior High School. A Patrons Night presented at the Harding Gym closed the activities of the year.

The Kinesian Club organized in 1926 by Miss McAfee, is composed of girls who continued gymnasium work in their senior year. The purpose of the club is known by its name as the word "Kinesian" is derived from the Greek, meaning "colisthenics" or "exercise."

. . . IT HAPPENED AT HARDING

February 8—LeRoy Everly consulted a fortune teller to find out if he was safe in going steady with Betty Williams and Pauline Mayfield at the same time.

February 11—Erwin Breithaupt was given a contract to decorate the walls in the corridors with murals of Snow White and Dopey. The school board figured that this would be cheaper than hiring a regular house painter.

February 14—Tete Roberts bought Betty a box of candy, but it looked so tempting that he ate it himself.

February 17—Mr. Bain missed a radio bulletin last night and raged all day.

February 20—Eugene Hoch, our famed boy soprano, sang "The Indian Love Call" in assembly today.

February 22—Elmer Wintringham mixed an overly generous portion of chemicals today and blew up the laboratory.

February 24—Marjorie Ebert and Robert Gries decided that they were meant for each other.

February 27—Miss Foreman selected the Senior play cast. This year's vehicle is "Snow-White and the Seven Dwarfies." The leading roles are: Snow-White, Jeanne Imbody; Doc, Robert Hanes; Bashful, Ben Wiant; Sleepy, Fred Sage; Happy, Edgar Mason; Grumpy, Bob Cosgrove; and Sneezy, Raymond Hudson. The part of Dopey has not yet been picked. (Yours truly does not want a libel suit on her hands.)

March 2—There's the gong. The second round of the Howe-Marks fued has just begun. Ringside seats are still available.

March 4—Louis Wood started a class in aesthetic dancing. The first ballet to have a public performance will be "The Lily and the Lamb," under the personal direction of Eleanor Krohmer and Helen Louise Rhu.

March 5—Miss Jacoby was arrested this noon for speeding and for driving through a red light.

March 8—Jack Creviston was elected to the honorary list of the W.C.T.U.

March 9—The class mottor chosen was "A stitch in time saves a lot of embarrassment."

March 12—Ava Marie Powelson received some very black looks from Thelma Wintringham today. Thelma didn't believe that Norman was in New York over the week-end.

March 16—Mary Adams was horrified to discover that Harding's colors were even carried out in the pattern which comprised her grade card.

March 18—School was closed for a week because of an epidemic of spring fever.

March 19—The band contest was held at Granville. Our band won superior honors for skill and dexterity in rendering the "Snake Charmer" while trucking down the field. Julia Anne Walsh was commended for her exhibition of twirling while doing the Susie Q with one foot and the Bostonian Hop with the other.

April 1—Mr. Marshall announced that the day would be given over to revelry and merrymaking. The solid geometry students gave Mr. Webb a quiz of 68 questions of which he answered three correctly.

April 3—Nelson Eddy came to Marion. Fourteen students attended school.

April 4—Nine hundred and sixty-eight ninth periods were given out.

April 7—The Senior class decided that its class project would be a unique drinking fountain near the library. This gadget will not only offer plain water, but aqua pura in the following flavors: lime, strawberry, and cherry.

April 10—The flower and color committee announced that the class flower is goldenrod (out of deference to those who suffer from hay fever). The class color is sky-blue-pink.

April 13—Harding's latest social organization, the Momentary Mediocre Misogonists, was formed. Officers are: Jack Stephenson, president; John McConnell, vice-president; Ralph Thibaut, sectary; and Jack Lewis, treasurer.

April 14—A new girl arrived from Galion. All the officers resigned except Mr. Lewis. He stated that he wished to remain head of the treasury merely for the principle of the thing.

April 17—Thelma Porter shed bitter tears today when she found out that she would not graduate. Mr. Marshall said, "This is what will happen to students who insist upon majoring in surrealism and volleyball. Students, take heed and arrange your schedule so that you will have one study which requires mental ability."

April 20—Warren Cyders and Helen Fetter did not speak to each other once during typing period.

May 1—The Varsity H Club held a Maypole dance at the stadium. The fellows looked stunning in voile creations of lavender and yellow.

May 6—Props and Q's presented "Shadow and Substance" before a record crowd. Ida Brunson was the Shadow and Betty Cahill was the Substance. In the near future, they will give "Amphitryon—Thirty Ate."

May 11—The Senior Breakfast was held at the Greasy Spoon. This was in the form of a Dutch Treat. On the committee were Pauline McParish, Mardie McKnapp, and Thomas McMullett. Each Senior was requested to bring his own silver.

May 28—Because of lack of funds, the Prom was turned into a street dance. Dancing was held on Main Street from 8 to 12. Admission by invitation only.

June 3—Twenty-six Seniors were graduated today. The rest decided to put it off till next year.
